HOLIDAY MAGIC TOY DRIVE

November 15 - December 15

Once again the Library is partnering up with Holiday Magic to host our annual toy drive to help bring some holiday joy to children in need. We will have a donation box available in the Main Library starting November 15. Please bring new, unwrapped toys for all ages to donate.

FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

A five-year Trustee seat on the Library Board of Trustees is about to expire. This position will be filled by an election in January 2017. Trustee Tracy Stapleton was elected to the Board in January 2011 for one year and then re-elected to a five-year term in 2012. She is eligible for re-election. Interested persons may pick up an application at the Circulation Desk. The completed application must include a resume, a written letter of interest and a written petition. Previous experience in libraries or library governance is helpful.

Voting will be by paper ballot at the Annual Meeting on Wednesday, January 11, 2017 from 10:00 AM-9:00 PM.
Meet the Candidates Night: Monday, December 19 at 6:30 PM

To be eligible for consideration as a candidate or to vote in the election, a person must be a member of the Port Jefferson Free Library Association; that is, you must be a resident of Union Free School District #6 and have a Library card in good standing. In addition, you must be at least 18 years of age.

Please address all correspondence to:

SOCIAL WORK INTERN AT THE LIBRARY

The PJFL is once again hosting a social work intern from Stony Brook University, Renoka Singh. Renoka will be available for several hours every week, on Thursdays and Fridays, to help patrons access available resources as well as to provide any other needed assistance. Please stop by, or call, the Children's department if you would like to meet with her. Hosting a social work intern is a growing trend in libraries across the country and we are proud to be one of the first on the Island to offer this service to our patrons.

The Friends Used Book Shop greatly appreciate your gently used book donations. Please no magazines, text books, DVDs. Your generous donations continue to help the Friends support the Library with special equipment, programs and furnishings for the community.

Look for our entry at the Festival of Trees this year! Beginning Dickens Weekend, until the end of the month, the Friends will be sponsoring a decorated tree for the PJ Library at the PJ Village Center.

EXHIBITIONS & DISPLAYS

If you would like to display your work, please see the website for more information or contact Sal Filosa at 631-473-0022.

NOVEMBER

Gallery Exhibition:

Slices of Nature/ Phase 3 by Joseph Rotella

In Mr. Rotella's work, he tries to capture the atmospheric conditions in terms of light, tone and color. Joseph paints the surface tones as he sees them, trying to be fluid and spontaneous with his brush strokes. In this exhibit, slices of nature, Phase 3, acrylic and oil paintings done in plein air will be on display.

November Case Display:

Mixed Media Art by Joann Watling

DECEMBER

Gallery Exhibition:

Portraits & Landscapes by Students & Instructors of The Atelier at Flowerfield

The Atelier at Flowerfield is a non-profit arts school in St. James. There is a stress on exploring classical art education in a contemporary setting. In this display, you will find cast/figure drawings, oil portraiture, landscapes and beyond. Creative expression of imagination is found in works by our artist instructors and students.
