AUTHOR VISIT WITH JUNE GERVAIS

Jobs for Girls with Artistic Flair

Presented by the Friends of the PJFL

Monday, June 20

6:30 PM

June Gervais grew up on the south shore of Long Island and earned her MFA in Writing and Literature at Bennington College. Her many jobs have included shelving library books and taking classified ads, grassroots activism and graphic design, art direction and teaching. Jobs for Girls with Artistic Flair is her debut novel. An uplifting, feminist coming-of-age love story about a young woman who dreams of becoming a tattoo artist, and living life on her own terms. Full synopsis available on our website.

Books will be available for purchase and signing.

THANK YOU PORT JEFFERSON!

Library Budget Passed!

89 - Yes, 4 - No

Your continued support helps the Library serve the community throughout the year!
